You can see the sea. You see. Lis-ten to the sea.
 The scat-tered pa-ges of a book by the sea see See Held by the washed by the waves See a shad-ow forms cast by a cloud that is skim-ming by as eyes of the past But the ri-sing tide ab-sorbs ef-for-tles-sly clai-ming. And they told of one and who ti-red of all are sing-ing and praise him sing and praise him so And then not flat-te-rers he how he cried "By our com-mand wa-ters retreat You Show my pow-er halt at my feet But the cause was lost, now cold winds blow.
 I'm Far from the north o-ver-cast ranks ad-vance I'm Fear of the storm ac-cu-sing with rage and scorn The waves sur-round the sink-ing throne Sing-ing: Crown him, crown him!
 "Those who love our mas-ter ma-jes-ty show them selves All bent their knees.
